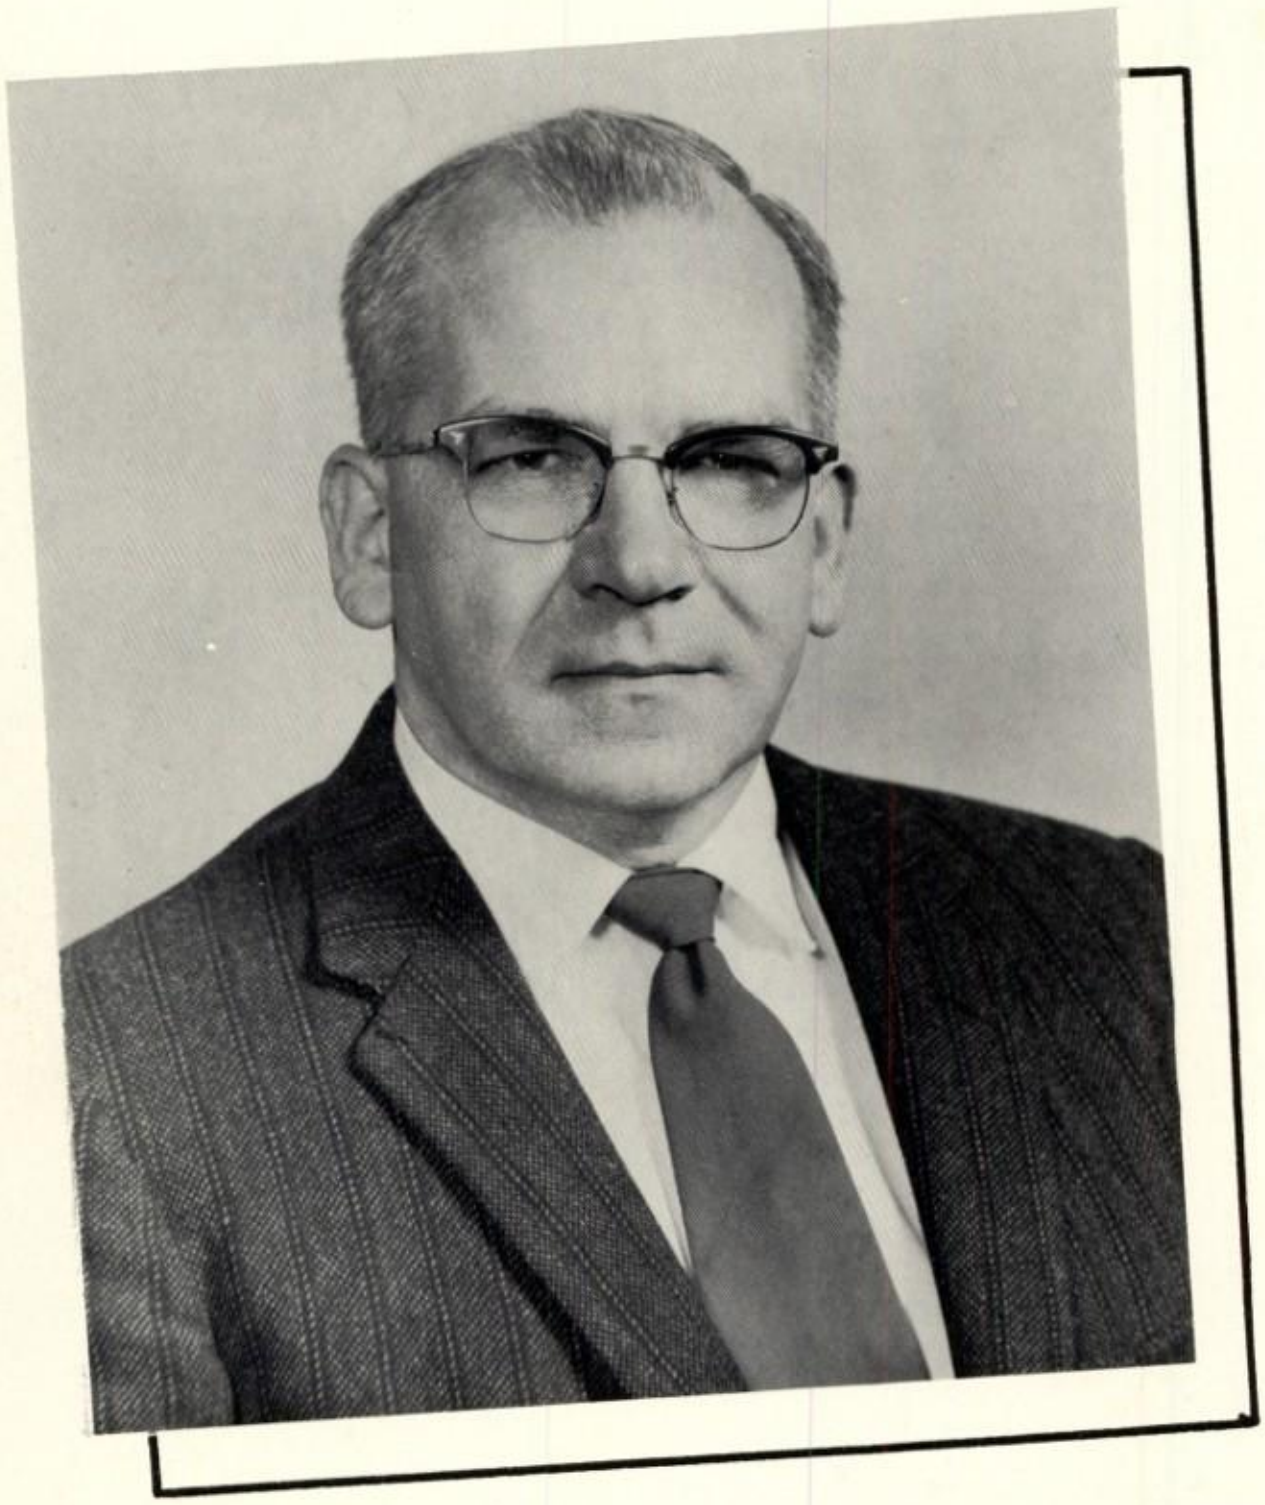
ORDINAL

IN MEMORIAM



Mr. William Timm, a beloved faculty member of Coldwater High School, died February 20, 1960 in a tragic boating accident.

Serving as the industrial arts instructor, Mr. Timm joined the CHS staff three years ago after teaching at Marcellus, Michigan for fifteen years.

Students and faculty members will remember Mr. Timm not only as a teacher but as a person to be relied on when a friendly hand was needed.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
The men who are good and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorner's seat
Or hurl the cynic's ban—
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

—Sam Walter Foss

Jim Rice, Valedictorian

Dean Lockwood, Salutatorian

Jim Rice, who received a 3.9355 average under Coldwater's 4 point system, was honored as valedictorian of the senior class this year. Not only did he excel in academic achievements, but also in various extracurricular activities. Included in these are debating, publications, varsity tennis, C-Club, International Relations, and National Honor Society.

Acknowledged as salutatorian of the class of '60 was Dean Lockwood, who earned a 3.7 average. Dean, who enjoys school athletics, participated in football, basketball, track, cross country, and bowling. In addition, Dean was a member of the National Honor Society, Hi-Y, 4-H, and an officer of his class.

Esther Harpham, DAR Girl

Leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism exemplify the prime characteristics of Esther Harpham, who was selected D.A.R. Girl by senior students and faculty members.

After being chosen from a group of four senior girls for this accolade, Miss Harpham was recognized by the Coldwater chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution as the good citizenship girl of CHS this year.

Miss Harpham received a pin, a certificate, and an invitation to the state conference and local honorary program. She was also eligible for the State Good Citizen position.

5 BOYS AND 5 GIRLS COMPOSE TOP TEN

FIRST ROW: E. Harpham, H. Leavenworth, K. Seaman, S. Carver, S. Fuller.
SECOND ROW: G. Molitor, R. Mathews, D. Lockwood, J. Rice, P. Lindner.

Faculty members selected the top ten of the 1960 senior class by utilizing a 4 point system as in the past. Points are only given for full credited academic courses which are averaged per semester. Those earning the two highest scores are declared valedictorian and salutatorian.

Chosen by the faculty as "ideal girl" and "ideal boy" were Sharon Carver and Roger Mathews. They were selected on the basis of citizenship. Both participated in many extracurricular activities, in addition to achieving good academic standings.

Senior Class Officers: R. Mathews, president; D. Carlisle, treasurer; R. Holben, vice-president; L. Iffland, secretary.

SENIORS BUSY YEAR SEEMS VERY SHORT

For the past four years, the Class of "60" has been working to attain the title "seniors." Now that they have reached their goal, they can look back on four exciting but busy years of school life.

Revenue to finance such things as the senior trip and the memorial chiefly came from paper drives, leaf-rakes, sponsoring Friday Night dances, and the concession stand. A new spring project was taken into effect in the spring of 1959 when Val Hawkins came up with the idea of a carnival. This year, Roger Mathews, president, also put this idea into effect.

On March 19, the seniors enjoyed a week's trip to New York and Washington, D. C.

This class is the first group to complete their four years of high school in the new building.

Advisors Mr. Oscar Renshaw and Miss Ilda Phillips.

JUNIOR CLASS BUSY BUILDING TREASURY

During the past year the Junior Class, led by advisors Bertrand Sibley and Mrs. Josephine Burandt, has worked continuously to increase its treasury.

Four after game dances provided a substantial amount of funds, and paper drives on Saturdays also helped. Other projects included a booth in the Carnival, the annual junior play, and a WOWO record hop.

Various other projects, however, depleted the treasury. In the spring, the juniors furnished the Junior-Senior Banquet and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Class Advisors Mrs. Josephine Burandt and Mr. Bertrand Sibley.

Contributing to the many extracurricular activities of Coldwater High School was the Sophomore Class.

Under the direction of Mrs. Anne Trebilcock and Gerhard Carlson, the class sponsored several evening events. Included in this list were many Friday night hops.

One of the most memorable events was the "Remember When" dance which they held after one of the basketball games. The main objective of the event was to present the top fifty records for the year of 1959.

In order to enlarge the class treasury, sophomores paid dues of 50 cents at the end of each semester.

Class members also participated in the annual carnival.

FRESHMEN CHALLENGE SENIORS IN CONTEST

As in the past, the Freshman Class has jumped the hurdles on the way to a higher education. Aside from adjusting to the fast pace of curriculum, they have acquired many memorable experiences in extracurricular activities.

One of the first projects which they attempted was a Halloween float for the parade. Students discovered that working together is a "barrel-of-fun" even though it is a great deal of work.

Although this class is lucky by being financially well-off, they did sponsor a few fund-raising drives. One of the first was the Freshman dance.

Perhaps, above all other achievements, the Freshmen are proudest of their victory over the Seniors in the T.B. Drive this year. They managed to outwit the Seniors in competition to raise money.

OUR PRINCIPAL

"To know him is to respect him."

A man of many qualities is Mr. Kermit Dennis, our principal. Perhaps his most outstanding quality is his keen sense of humor. His interests are wide and include hunting, fishing, gardening, and boat building.

Completing his 12th year as principal his background includes an A.B. degree from Adrian, a M.A. degree from the University of Michigan, science and mathematics teaching, and four years of junior high administration. He has done further work at Western Michigan and Northwestern.

Mr. Dennis is strongly in favor of guidance in the field of education. He feels that one of the main objectives is to help the student seek out his greatest ability and then to guide the student in developing his talents.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE OF SCHOOL

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY INITIATED

The Coldwater High School Commission, under the leadership of Mayor Ken Elliot, completed many projects this year. Helping Ken, were Mary Jane Nichols, clerk, and eight commissioners.

This year the commission sponsored a student government day for the first time. Among other activities the commission checked lockers, issued parking stickers, and sponsored a WOWO Record Hop. They also entered a float in the Halloween Parade. As usual, a handbook was printed to be given to each student on the first day of school. They also revised the constitution of Coldwater High School.

A new project for the commission was a laminating machine. This was a money-making project.

During the last four years, this organization has been under the wise guidance of Mr. James Vincent.

Editor Gordon Hinckley

Hustle! Hustle! Hustle!

Out of Breath? And so little time! Cardinal Staff members could be seen running back and forth in an attempt to meet page deadlines. This was the scene during the months of December, January, and February in the library workroom of Mrs. Della Mitchell.

After moving from the English Department into their new quarters, the staff, under the editorship of Gordon Hinckley, dug into the long hard task of putting together a yearbook by a new and different method.

"A realm of activity from dawn 'till dark" was chosen by the group as the theme of the book — as the staff soon learned that there is always "something going on" at the high school be it day or dark.

CARDINAL CHATTER STRESSES QUALITY

Chatter advisor Miss Yvonne Tinklepaugh discusses future issues with editor Ann Dally and assistant editor Joyce Noblit.

Cardinal Chatter under its new sponsor, Miss Yvonne Tinklepaugh, continued its function of informing the public on all high school activities.

Under editor Ann Dally and assistant editor Joyce Noblit, a new system was brought into effect. The paper was issued every other week and concentrated on feature stories, good pictures, and attractive style. A sports personality feature also added color to the page.

"To inform the student body of Coldwater High School concerning school and local events" has been one of the main objectives of "The Mirror" staff. As in the past, the staff continued to compile the issues themselves, sixteen times during the year, doing all but the actual press printing. Page editors met bi-weekly to design page layout and plan the stories. Stories of a specific number of words were then assigned to the various reporters. The paper was financed entirely by group dues payments.

In the past, editors were selected from journalism classes. During second semester, however, Geva Burkovskis served as editor while the journalism class members alternated as assistant editor.

Geva Burkovskis, Sharon Carver, and Sharon Fuller, editors of "The Mirror," and Mrs. Nancy Goodreau discuss page layout and style for an issue of the school paper.

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character is the purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y Club as they carried out their many worth while projects.

The club continued to donate an annual $120 toward the support of a Korean orphan boy. It also supported a non-profit hospitality cart at the local hospital. Part of their yearly activities was the co-sponsorship of the annual Valentine formal along with the Hi-Y Club.

Officers for the year were Carol Cameron, president; Barbara Hass, vice-president; Kay Seaman, secretary; Diana King, treasurer; Janice Berry, sergeant-at-arms; and Sonet Eby, chaplain.

F.T.A. OFFERS HONOR SCHOLARSHIP TO FUTURE TEACHER

Miss Ilda Philips and Mary Ellen Love, president, discuss plans for scheduling pseudo-teachers.

Under the direction of Miss Philips, the Future Teachers have been busy with activity to interest and acquaint its members with the profession of education.

Again this year another scholarship was offered to the senior who met various qualifications and standards. Finances for this award and other activities came from selling basketball programs, stationery, and hangers. Also the members sponsored a dance.

To further the knowledge of these pseudo-teachers, the club members had the experience of helping teach at various elementary schools.

FUTURE NURSES SERVE LOCAL HOSPITAL

Under the advisorship of Miss Rose Steffaniak, and Miss Alice McGowan, members of Future Nurses have received much valuable experience and insight into the field of nursing.

In order to receive their award, the members must spend 25 hours on duty at the local hospital as a nurse's aid. Other activities of the year included helping in the State Home swimming program, Muscular Dystrophy Drive, and decorating the hospital at Christmas. The group also made tours to the State Home, Upjohn Company, and several nursing schools. At Thanksgiving the members had a tea for the Bronson and Quincy F.N. clubs.

Initiation was held Dec. 7 ending with a special program at night. Pins, showing the medical symbol with a F.N. guard, were presented in April at a candlelight program.

The club officers for this year were: Linn Stickney, president; Linda Loomis, vice-president; Kathy Enright, secretary; Jonnie Gottschalk, treasurer.

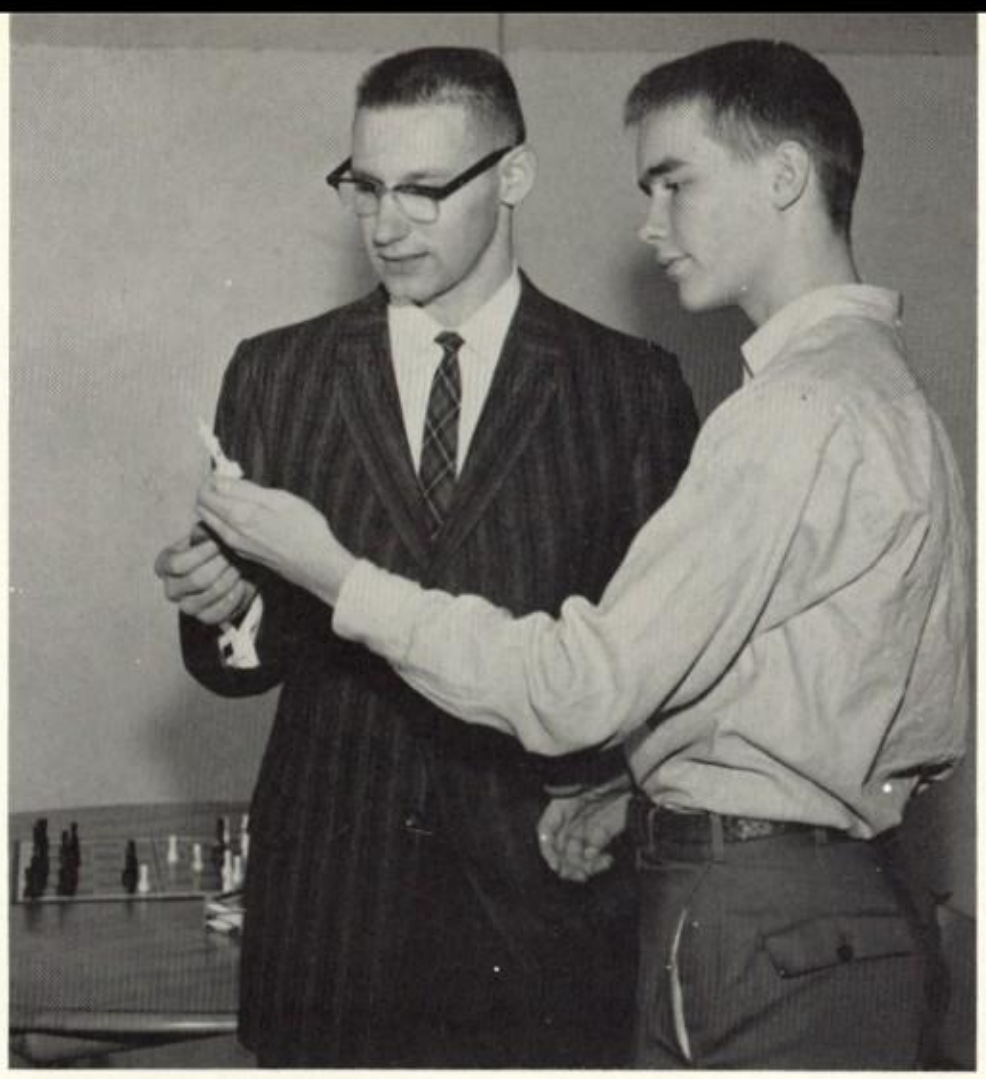
PSEUDO-SCIENTISTS CONSTRUCT TELESCOPE

William Timm, advisor, and Jim Rice, treasurer, examine Science Club equipment.

The Science Club under the direction of William Timm and Bob Halsall, president, has finished a six-inch telescope which was begun last year. Individual projects were required from each member of the organization. These projects ranged from the construction of a Jacob's ladder to short wave radios.

Members of the group also had the good fortune of receiving materials concerning rockets and their functioning. From these materials the boys then proceeded to build a missile of their own, which they later attempted to fire.



Mr. Gerhard Carlson, advisor, and Phil Lindner, president, examine rare specimen of chessmen.

"To play chess and learn more about the skills of the game" has been the ultimate goal of the members of the Chess Club. Organized by Mr. Carlson this past year, the club offered an opportunity for chess fans to meet others interested in the hobby. The organization alternated its evening and afternoon games having one of each every other week.

Members participated in a tournament within the club to determine the most skillful player. The opponents were paired in twos, and played two out of three games. Winners then competed against themselves until all but one was eliminated. This competitor received the honor of champion.

Although the club offered new horizons for chess enthusiasts, it made no attempt to function as a typical high school organization.

Being in charge of the showcase, the group readily replaced stale interiors when needed. Some of the most outstanding showcases were the club's Christmas and Easter projects.

Members of the new organization learned many different types of art work. Included in these were mosaics, sculpture, life sketching, papier mache, and cartooning. Field trips to examine and depict certain art work were also taken.

Along with the I.R.C. member, one student from St. Charles was selected to represent the Coldwater schools. The students discussed the world events making history.

Other events during the year were programs on Mexico and Europe presented by outside guests. Carrying out their objective, to promote world understanding, this year's club contributed to a world relief organization.

SERVICE CLUB HAS VARIED ACTIVITIES

During the past year, members of the Cardinal Service Club which is under the direction of Kermit Dennis, principal, have continued serving Coldwater High School.

Maintaining smooth school operations has been their main objective as they willingly perform various tasks for classmates and faculty members.

Included in the various duties are gate and door attendants, scoreboard operators, and parking supervisors. In addition, they build scenery for class plays, operate lights at plays and concerts, and run the movie and slide projectors for school activities.

To become a member of the club, a boy must serve one semester as an apprentice. Thereupon, he is voted into the club by the members if his work has been satisfactory.

Membership is restricted to a maximum of twenty boys.

Officers of the club include Clayton Boston, president; Tom Krzeminski, vice-president; Charles Boston, secretary-treasurer.

"Resolved: that the Federal Government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions" was the topic debated by the Coldwater High School squad coached by Mrs. Judy Dearbaugh.

This year's team was composed of Martha Gay and John Long of the Affirmative and Phil Lindner and Jim Rice of the Negative. Each side had eight debates, four in the Twin Valley League and four in the State League. Besides these the team also competed in the state tournament.

Next year the affirmative team will be back, but a completely new negative team will have to be trained.

Coach Judy Dearbaugh demonstrates proper debate method to Martha Gay.

HOMECOMING WAS THRILLING IN SPITE

During the half of the Coldwater-Lakeview game, the annual homecoming festivities began on October 9. The queen and her court were reviewed as they rode around the track, and then Mayor Art Lyons crowned Dorothy Carlisle homecoming queen for 1959.

In spite of their futile attempts to win, the varsity gridders dropped the homecoming game 12 to 6.

After the exciting, yet heart-breaking game, Dorothy and her court reigned over the homecoming dance. The decorations were few due to the new fire laws. However, the queen and court were seated on the decorated stage where their chairs were elaborately decorated and surrounded with palms.

The dance was well attended and considered to be a very successful evening.

Mayor Arthur G. Lyon places crown on head of homecoming queen, Dorothy Carlisle.

MAN-TRAP SET BY THREE

As part of the senior's activity, the class produced their annual class play, choosing "Three Blind Mice" by Guy Bolton.

The action revolved around three young sisters who, selling their chicken farm, pool their funds for an excursion to Miami to go "rich-husband-hunting."

Having a restricted bankroll, Kay Seaman as Pam poses as a rich young socialite accompanied by her secretary, Elizabeth, played by Sharon Fraser, and Moira, the maid, played by Patsy Feller.

Romance for Pam comes on the scene in the form of Alfred DuPont, played by Dave Bonfiglio, an aspiring hotel social director. Henry Trowbridge, portrayed by Gilbert Molitor, a prudish hometown lawyer, becomes Elizabeth's prize. Moira captures the heart of a wealthy young Harvard student, Dean Lockwood as Stephen Harrington.

Adding to the confusion are Mrs. Brambes, Stephen's aunt, played by Linn Stickney, and Stephen's uncle, Conrad Harrington, played by Richard Holben. Dot Carlisle as "Nosey" Parker, causes chaos with her devious methods of collecting choice bits for her gossip column. Mr. Cord, played by Jim Berry, and Janet Heisrodt as the waitress added the extras in filling out the play scenes.

Dave Bonfiglio expounds on the ridiculous situation of Patsy Feller, Sharon Fraser, and Kay Seaman as they prepare their man trap.

BLIND MICE

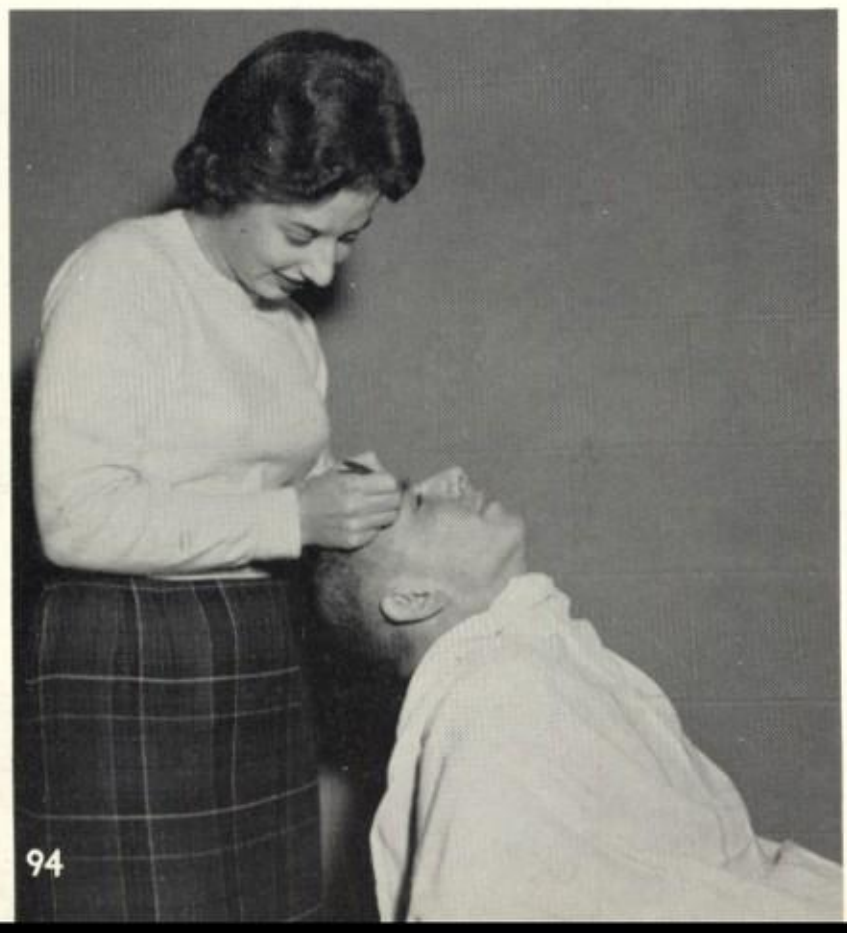
Dorothy Carlisle and Linn Stickney casually compare bits of gossip at a cocktail party, while Janet Hiesrodt serves some refreshments to Richard Holben.

Sharon Fraser frantically attempts to revive Gil Molitor from an over-dose of sleeping pills, while Kay Seaman and Patsy Feller silently congratulate themselves on the outcome of their scheme.

SENIOR PLAY

Linn Stickney and Dave Bonfiglio angrily point out the possible outcome of the three sisters' man hunt to Kay Seaman, while Richard Holben nonchalantly observes the heated scene.

Kay Seaman and Dean Lockwood enact a touching love scene as Dave Bonfiglio sneaks in for a candid photo.



Miss Coscarelly, Coldwater's play advisor, demonstrates techniques for applying eye make-up as Dean Lockwood patiently poses as the subject.

SENIORS PARTICIPATE IN GOVERNMENT DAY

The Board of Public Works for-a-day consisted of J. Noblit, J. Worden, G. Molitor, R. Killian, B. Sticken, K. Ratoscrasy.

Through the careful planning of the Chamber of Commerce together with our Commission, Government Day was again initiated in Coldwater.

Interested seniors spent the day with various officials learning their particular duties and obtaining a better understanding of city government. In the evening, a mock council meeting was held in which students tried to solve problems they had made up.

VALENTINE BALL FEATURES

Sandy Graham and Jerry Myers pause at the heart-shaped entrance before entering into an evening of dining and dancing.

One of the outstanding social events of the year was the "Royal Valentine Ball," sponsored jointly by the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs. The Masonic Temple furnished the setting amid the traditional hearts and flowers and music by the Bob Stempion Band.

A new feature of this formal was the selection of the "ideal couple" to be King and Queen over the festivities. From a group of five couples, the royal couple was chosen and enthroned for the duration of the evening.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

Whodunnit? This question was answered in the junior play under the direction of Miss Phyllis Coscarelly and student director Sue Castleberry.

Cecil B. Gilford's mystery-comedy entitled "Whodunnit" was presented by the juniors on March 31 and April 1. The murder mystery evolved around Alexander Arlington, a famous, aging, well-to-do suspense writer, played by John Long. Alex finds himself in Heaven at the start of the production and discovers that he has been stabbed in the back. Well, being a mystery writer, he insists that he must know who murdered him or he'll never be happy in Heaven.

Michael the archangel, portrayed by Greg Miller, assisted by two angels, Muriel and Isabelle, characterized by Bonnie Paddock and Judy From respectively, decides to let the miserable mortal man relive his last day on earth to discover his murderer.

Returning to civilization, Alex has one advantage, foresight. Trying to uncover a clue which would lead to the knowledge of his assailant, the author discovers everyone except Annie his housekeeper, played by Marcia Bailey. Through a conversation with gangster's moll Flo Baker, Janice Berry in disguise, Alex is confronted with the fact that his nephew Andrew, played by Ted Tompkins owes a huge gambling debt and could use the money he would receive as an only living relative. Former criminal Harry, now a gardener for the author, was the role of Bob Long. Harry is afraid Alex will squeal. Miss Jenkins, the secretary, played by Sandy Graham, wants Alex out of the way so she can continue to write books under his pen name. Finally, his fiancee Vivian—twice his junior—played by Geva Burkovskis and athlete George Brewster, the role of Mike Brayton, wish to see the writer dead to inherit half of his money which he left to his future wife.

Unfortunately though, Alex is murdered again in the same fashion as before and is still unaware of his murderer until the archangel enlightens him.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR COMPLETES 17th YEAR

Athletic Director Floyd Eby has this year completed his 17th season at Coldwater High School. Now coaching the varsity basketball team, he first came as athletic director, football, basketball, and baseball coach.

As a teenager, he graduated from Constantine High School and attended Michigan State, Harvard University, and Princeton for his degrees.

During his coaching career at CHS, Coach Eby has had one championship football team, two baseball championships, two state basketball championships, and many league, regional and district basketball championships.

CARDINALS TIE FOR SECOND PLACE

Finishing a 16 game season with only 5 losses, Coldwater Varsity Cagers finished the best season in years with a 9-5 record in conference games.

Coldwater lost its first ball game to a sharp-shooting East Lansing team on our home court. Winning the next four in a row, Coldwater was finally upset by the fired-up Adrian team. The team went on to win a three-way tie for second place in the Twin Valley League.

Perhaps at no time in the history of Michigan basketball has a team lost so many games by such big margins as Coldwater did last year, and yet come back to a winning season the next year.

With hopes hinging on five returning lettermen, three of whom are in the starting five, Coach Eby can hope for a winning season again next year.

Final league statistics revealed Ron Paradine as top rebound man with a total of 209 rebounds. Tom Smith lead in total assists with 84 to his credit.

BASEBALL TEAM HAS LONGEST SCHEDULE IN SCHOOL HISTORY

FRONT ROW: B. Henson, D. Belote, M. Vaughan, D. Speaker, R. Mathews, B. Buys.
SECOND ROW: T. Smith, M. Brayton, R. Paradine, J. Pennington, G. Archer, L. Downs, Coach Frank Lowe.

Under the expert coaching of Pat Lowe, the varsity team made an excellent record for Coldwater High.

Eight varsity lettermen plus one varsity transfer student returned this year to form a good nucleus. Last year's men carried a 11-4 record and were second in the Twin Valley League with a 5-2 record. Most of the boys were members of the summer Connie Mack team which won the Michigan State Connie Mack Championship with 23 consecutive victories.

The team this year played the longest schedule in the history of the school consisting of approximately 22 games.

One of the highlights of the baseball season was a three-day trip to Kalamazoo during spring vacation in which the team played five games with other schools in the Kalamazoo area.

The pitching staff was built around three-year letter winner Bruce Buys. His record last year was 8 wins 2 losses. The pitching staff will include seniors Gordon Archer, Ben Henson, Duane Belote, a south-paw junior, and sophomore Danny Speaker. Leading hitters of the team were catcher Tom Smith, a three-year veteran; infielders Ron Paradine and Glen Pearce; and outfielder Roger Mathews.

FIRST ROW: D. Johnson, R. Barnes, T. Fisk, R. McNitt, D. Carpenter, D. VanWagner, J. Gottschalk.

RESERVE TEAM SHOWS REAL PROMISE

The reserve team consisted of mainly freshmen and sophomores coached by Gerald Weaver.

The team played an 8-game schedule, 2 games with Sturgis, 2 with Bronson, and 4 with St. Charles varsity team.

Leading the reserves were first baseman Les Waldron; infielder Bruce Wood; pitcher Mike Pfost; shortstop Leon Clearwater; outfielder Wayne Pelmear; catcher Acie Stanfill; and second baseman Jerry Gottschalk.

"C" CLUB INITIATES "MOM'S NIGHT"

Striving to keep high morals and high morale, the Varsity "C" Club set high standards for its members, and if the boys do not adhere to the constitution, they are removed from membership.

Under the direction of Coach Floyd Eby, president Craig Curtiss; secretary Bruce Buys; vice-president Jim Mollenkopf; treasurer Ron Paridine, and sergeant-at-arms Chuck Eslow, the club enjoyed another active year. Entering the Halloween Parade, it received third prize. The club sponsored Dad's Night and Mom's Night during football and basketball season respectively.

"To promote good sportsmanship and to provide intramurals for the girls" is the purpose of the Girls Athletic Association which is under the direction of Miss Marilyn VanWyk.

This group, which has Judy Worden as its president; Marcia Baily as vice-president; Beth Lamberson as secretary; and Judy Reese as treasurer, has its year's activities divided into individual and team sports. The team recreation consists of speedball, bowling, and volleyball and involves tournaments between teams. Tennis, badminton, and ping pong make up the individual activities.

Games between the faculty and girls from GAA in volleyball and basketball were the main money making projects for this year. The club also sold sweatshirts to help increase their finances.

If I had the opportunity to say a fine word to all the young people of America, it would be this: Don't think too much about yourselves. Try to cultivate the habit of thinking of others; this will reward you. Nourish your minds by good reading, constant reading. Discover what your lifework is, work in which you can do most good, in which you can be happiest. Be unafraid in all things when you know you are in the right. — DR. CHARLES W. ELIOT.
